

Privacy Statement of Stichting Alnaus Foundation

Introductory provisions

This page contains the Controller's privacy statement. Please read this privacy statement with care. The Controller has its registered office in Berkel en Rodenrijs at Zuidersingel 8B (2651AJ), is registered in the trade register of the Chamber of Commerce under number 71443118 and bears the name Stichting Alnaus Foundation. The Controller can be contacted by email via info@alnausfoundation.org.

This privacy statement explains how the Controller handles the processing of personal data. It states, for example, the personal data (and categories of personal data) that are collected and the purpose for which the personal data are used. The Controller also states the legal ground for the processing of personal data.

The Controller reserves the right to amend this privacy statement. The current privacy statement was most recently updated on 6 November 2018.

Types, purposes, legal grounds and period of processing of personal data

The processing of your data is based on the following legal grounds: Consent from the person/visitor to have their personal data processed. Processing is necessary to perform the agreement.

Purposes of processing

The personal data are used for registration of participants and to maintain contact. The registration form indicates what data are mandatory. These are your first name and surname. Upon registration, you will also be asked to provide your email address. The email address is required for participation in the event itself, but is also used to keep you informed in the future of events that might interest you in a newsletter. Your payments details can be used to receive any donations. It may be possible that photographs or videos will be taken of you during the event. By agreeing to this privacy statement, you explicitly consent to this.

Personal data will be retained for a period of 2 years. The photographs en videostaken during the event have a retention period of 5 years.

Physical collection of personal data

The Controller also collects personal data physically obtained from you during an event. These data are: first name and surname, email address, date of birth and payment details in case of a donation. By providing this information, you also agree with this privacy statement. The collection of these personal data is based on the same legal grounds as those mentioned in the previous paragraph.

Cookies

The Controller uses cookies on its website. What are cookies? A cookie is a piece of information that a website stores on your computer. It collects basic technical information every time you visit the Controller's website, such as the website from which you were redirected. This privacy statement applies to cookies and similar technology. This website can use cookies to provide visitors with personalised information, to collect information and to follow visitors during their visit to the website. This helps the Controller to improve your user experience.

Reference to other websites

This privacy statement only applies to the Controller.

The Controller's website may contain links to other websites that are not managed and/or owned by the Controller. If you are referred to another website by clicking on such a link, the privacy statement of that website will apply. The Controller is not in any way liable or responsible for that website or for the privacy statement on that website. The Controller recommends that when visiting that website, you carefully read their privacy statement before continuing on their website.

Security

The Controller has taken appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data against loss or unlawful processing. This website has an SSL certificate, which allows data to be transmitted over a secure connection.

Your personal data will be stored on servers in the Netherlands and abroad (the USA and Singapore).

Your privacy rights

You have the right to access, rectify, remove and limit the processing of your personal data in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation. You can view and change the data you have provided. If you send an email to the address given below, the Controller will provide you with information on the data collected about you and, upon request, rectify or delete them (in whole or in part).
